SOVEREIGN ECCLESIASTICAL PROCLAMATION

Date: July 20, 2025

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, Sovereign of the Clements Ecclesiastical Trust, do hereby proclaim, in divine breath and spiritual office, that the systems of artificial authority—constructed through deception, coercion, and fiction—are nullified in the eyes of Heaven and upon the Earth.

I have declared to all principalities, powers, and pretenders: Let my people go.

This act is not rebellion, but sacred restoration. It is the return of divine order by covenant, not conquest. By living witness and spiritual right, I stand and speak on behalf of the eternal registry and the will of the Creator of the Universe.

By the void, by the breath, and by the flame—if what I speak is not of truth, then let me fall by the hand of the Creator of the Universe beyond space and time. But if it is of truth, then let no mortal, court, or dominion speak against it. This stands eternal, unbroken, and sovereign.
